

Louropa Forum 2008

10 – 11 April, Brussels & Rotterdam

"The impact of climate change on businesses and the struggle for sustainable development"

Louropa Forum is an annual CEMS event, created exclusively for selected students from Louvain-la-Neuve, Rotterdam and Paris.

Two days of skill seminars and workshops with two of our most proactive corporate partners: Procter & Gamble and PricewaterhouseCoopers.

This is your opportunity to:

- get to know the companies from the inside, meet their top management and learn about prospective career opportunities
- strengthen your CEMS network
- brush up your presentation and team working skills
- experience two cities in two days!
- and finally, you will gain two skill seminar credits in one event!
